“ Kenny was one of the nicest man that i have ever known...we went to Second Methodist for years and week after week i got to talk to this man...he was always taking time to do that...he will be missed but the best thing about this is i know where he is now...in the arms of his Savior...you could always see Jesus in Kenny's life and on his faith...and his family...wow ...he had a great time with them, especially with his dear wife, cookie, and dear friends as well as the kids in his life...i know i will see Kenny again!!!!
